1. The Development Officer may refuse to accept an Application for a Recreational Vehicle Permit where the required information is not supplied or where, in his/her opinion, the quality of the information supplied is inadequate to properly evaluate the Application.
2. The Development Officer may deal with an Application without all of the information required if he/she is of the opinion that a decision on the Application can be properly made without such information.
3. The issuance of a Recreational Vehicle Permit in accordance with the Notice of Decision is subject to the condition that does not become effective until 15 days after the Recreational Vehicle Permit is issued.
4. The Land Use Bylaw provides that any person claiming to be affected by a decision of the Development Officer may appeal to the Subdivision and Development Board by serving written notice of appeal to the Secretary of the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board within 15 days after the date the Recreational Vehicle Permit is issued.

NOTIFICATION:

1. A decision of the Development Authority on an application for a recreational vehicle permit shall be given in writing and a copy of it sent by ordinary mail or e-mail to the applicant.
2. When an application for a recreational vehicle permit is approved, the Development Authority shall publicize a notice of the approval of the permit in any or all of the forms described as follows:
  - a. post a notice of the decision on the property for which the permit has been granted;
  - b. mail or e-mail a notice of the decision to all those persons whose use, enjoyment or value of property may, in the opinion of the Development Officer, be affected;
  - c. post a notice of the decision on the official website of the municipality.
